35 CENTS FOR 3 MEALS? YES. SAYS DR. JAFFA

U. of C. Professor Gives Data to Prove Contention; Starts Off With 7-Cent Breakfast

Luncheon Cost Shows Slight Increase; Dinner Outlay Gathers Up All the Stray Calories

Based on prevailing food costs, the average man can live today on a three-meal budget totaling 35 cents, according to Dr. M. E. Jaffa, professor emeritus of nutrition at the University of California.

And to prove his statement, made following careful analysis, he has prepared an average Jaffa budget for three meals a day, segregating food costs and calories.

7-Cent Breakfast

Breakfast in the Jaffa Budget calls for an expenditure of exactly seven cents each morning to provide 950 calories for the human system. Eight cents is set aside for luncheon which gives 1,070 calories, and the sum of 18 cents is allocated for the 1,429 calories at dinner time.

Modified a Bit

Dr. Jaffa explains:

'The budget expresses the average of many dietary studies of families of small income and has been modified just enough to overcome undesirable deficiencies due to enforced privations and to meet the minimum demands for health and effciency."

Here it is:

Item.	Food cost.	Calories.
BREAKFAST.
Coffee	$ .009	None
Milk	.01	40
Sugar	.003	200
Mush, or an egg (alternate)	.02	200
Bread	.008	200
Butter	.01	110
Fruit	.01	100
Totals	$ .07	950
LUNCH.
Sugar	$ .005	200
Salad	.01	110
Macaroni and cheese	.025	300
Milk	.01	40
Bread	.01	200
Fruit	.01	100
Butter	.01	110
Totals	$ .08	1,070
DINNER.
Meat or fish	$ .081	480
Milk	.01	40
Vegetable	.04	100
Coffee	.009	None
Bread	.03	600
Totals	$ .18	1,420
Sundries, such as oils, spices, etc.	.02 per day	130
Grand total	$ .35	3,570

In conclusion, Dr. Jaffa admonishes that while his budget is for the "average man," all the food his diet calls for is necessary, "but not necessarily all that is required."

"No person should be held down to a minimum when the appetite and apparent body needs seem to call for more."

AMERICAN FUNERAL RECORD

A READY REFERENCE DAY-BOOK FOR UNDERTAKERS

A few words of Explanation to the man who enters up the order for Funeral Arrangements:

This Record Book will be of great assistance to your profession in entering up funerals and arrangements for same, correctly, intelligently and completely. You will find it prudent to record all items that are given therein, as in doing this you will not only enhance the prestige of the profession, but also create admiration and confidence of your patrons in your work. Record items of a deceased are looked for at the Undertaker's quite frequently, and the more exact the record is kept with data that have bearing on the funeral, the better will be the results.

In entering up your work, observe the following:

State full name of the deceased on first line; also note on next line the relative position of same to the one the funeral is to be charged to; for instance: Husband of, wife of, son of, etc.

The two clauses, "Order given by," and "How secured," are important. They will assist you very materially in overcoming the embarrassment incident to asking security for an account.

The clause "Cause of Death" is very essential for several reasons: 1, to know whether the subject died of a contagious disease; 2, to adopt correct measures for embalming; 3, to ascertain necessity of disinfection, etc.

Occupation of the deceased, single or married, religion and age, are matters of biographical record and should be entered up most exact and correct in every case.

The pleasing and correct rotation, observed in the bill of items to be charged, is an essential and most practical feature of the chart, and this part of the record alone is worth the price of the book. Fill out such items as you were called upon to furnish, and leave the others blank. Read all items carefully when you render bill, in order to be sure that you have not omitted any charge. The extra lines on bill of items are for such charges as the printed items may not provide. You may, for instance, be called upon to charge outlays, such as Railroad Fares, Moneys Advanced, etc.

The Ledger part on bottom of each page will enable you to keep account of your entire funeral work in one book, though you may prefer to transfer the total of the bill as one item into your regular Ledger.

This Funeral Record has been compiled after laborious and close study into the proper requirements of your profession. It is the result of years of experience, and, if you will carefully enter up the spaces provided in this book, you will find that every item that might possibly be needed for future reference is recorded.

FUNERAL ETHICS

The average Funeral Director, while conversant with the details of funeral work, cannot fail to find the following Rules on Funeral Etiquette interesting reading matter, with the chances of finding among them some points, the close observance of which will be of benefit to him, to-wit:

In all things use good judgment and cool deliberation in performing your work, and remember that you are not called upon to console the bereaved, but to take care of the remains, and do that in the most competent and least ostentatious way.

Be courteous and polite under any and all circumstances, however trying. Refrain from alluding to your work as "a job;" it is not only bad form, but is also apt to offend your patrons. Term it "a call," "a funeral," or "an order."

Perform your work in a quiet and considerate manner, and make as few requests of the family as possible. Talk in an undertone while at the funeral house.

When selling the casket or coffin, do not be afraid to recommend the use of high-class goods. It will satisfy your customers better in the end and will prove an effective advertisement for yourself.

Take correct note of all arrangements for the funeral when the order for the casket is taken. Be sure that you have a clear understanding with your customer on all points pertaining to the funeral arrangements, and then note same in your Funeral Record Book. Also be careful that you have the correct spelling of name for the newspapers, etc. A memorandum sheet of the American Funeral Record will assist you greatly in these functions

Take note of as many of the biographical items, such as religion, age, occupation, etc., of the deceased as you can obtain by easy suasion and insert them in the proper spaces provided in this Record Book. Items of record of a deceased are often inquired for at the Undertaker's, and by keeping complete account and record of all things, your patrons will see convincingly that you are doing your work on up-to-date principles, and that a funeral is handled by you better than a mere "putting the body under ground."

Have leave-taking occur prior to arrival of friends for the funeral and attend to closing casket or sealing of steel caskets or metallic linings before the services begin. Avoid all delay, hitch or misunderstanding with your helpers. Instruct bearers, drivers and others beforehand.

Use Badge with delicate flowers and smilax on the door instead of the antiquated cloth crepe.

Lining with evergreen helps very materially to make a grave seem less distressing during interment.

A very desirable adjunct to your equipment is some matting, and possibly a canopy to use at the cemetery, in sunshine or storm. The bereavedwill appreciate it.

At the funeral services speeches of lodge members precede the sermon. If societies attend in a body, the principal services are usually held at the grave. Episcopal services are usually held at the house. Roman Catholic alwavs at the church.

Have your hearse paralleled with the sidewalk. (Do not back it into the pavement like a moving van.)

Order of funeral cortege is best arranged as follows: Automobile with pall-bearers—hearse—chief mourners' auto—Minister's auto—autos of friends. If lodge members conduct the rites, the lodge members lead the procession.

Where the deceased is buried without any religious services, or where the mourners are unable to engage the services of a preacher, the undertaker may officiate and offer the prayer.

If remains are to be shipped, see to it that the departure from the house is set so as to be at the depot at least one-half hour before train time. This will give the undertaker a chance to see to arrangements in proper manner and without undue flurry.

Stillborns are buried by the undertaker alone. It is unusual that any of the family attend the interment.

Where bodies are neither embalmed nor put on ice, keep in coolest place possible, perhaps best between two open windows, with the sunshades drawn down as far as needed, and use a bleacher frequently over face and hands of the deceased.

Let the entire funeral be conducted in a quiet, well-ordered and dignified manner, and you will have conferred a lasting favor upon those who required the sorrowful need of your service. This is the best method of advertising an undertaker can employ, and it is the stepping-stone for sure success.

Sonoma, Calif. 95476

Dear Mr. Fehrensen,

I am writing to you for a very special reason; special to our family. I have enclosed a copy of a letter I sent to The Chamber of Commerce, Sonoma, on August 5, 1984. The letter will, no doubt, explain what I am attempting to do.

To clarify my request; I received a response to my letter yesterday and was given a good deal of information on how to proceed in my search for Baby Melvin Fidler. Mr. Parmellee, a Chamber of Commerce assistant, called to advise me on the results of his search to assist me. He gave me your name and adress and felt certain you possibly had information re: Baby Melvin. I was surprised when Mr. Parmellee explained your firm had, for many years, been the only funeral home in Sonoma. He also stated your records were most thorough and complete and dated back many, many years. Mr. Parnellee was certain that if Baby had died in Sonoma, your firm would have handled the service and burial.

I did secure Baby Melvin's birth certificate from Yolo County and Baby was named Melvin Robert Fidler. He was born May 6, 1931. I also learned only Today That Baby's maternal grandmother, a Sonoma resident, was named Mary P. Madocrian, but That she had remarried at some point while in Sonoma and her name became Mary Puglicci. (Sp?) Do you have any record of her?

My real interest at This time remains with Baby Melvin. I would like To know when he died and where he is buried. Mr. Parmellee said There were two cemeteries at Sonoma. He also advised me That with a date, I could probably see Baby's death notice on microfilm at Sonoma City Library.

It might help to narrow The time span To tell you Baby Melvin's mother died in 1933. And Baby was deceased prior To his mother's death, June 5, 1933.

I know it will require time and search of your records, but may I ask you to zerox The records of Baby Melvin if you have Them. I will be glad to remit The cost for The zeroxing, postage, etc. I would be most Appreciative of any help you can give me.

Sincerely,

Therese Fidler-Stevenson
